PRINCE GORTSCHAKOFF'S ANSWER TO EARL GRANVILLE.

THE NOTE SAID TO BE CONCILIATORY IN TONE—THE RUSSIAN CIRCULAR A SURPRISE TO BISMARCK—CORDIAL RECEPTION OF ODO RUSSELL AT VERSAILLES.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]
LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1870.
Prince Gortschakoff's answer to Earl Granville, left St. Petersburg on Monday by special messenger. The substance of the note was not communicated to the British Ambassador at St. Petersburg, but his dispatches intimate that it is conciliatory in tone.

It is believed in the Foreign Office here that Prince Gortschakoff, while withholding the precise information from Bismarck, has encouraged the British Minister to report favorably to London concerning the disposition of Russia.

I have the same authority for saying that Prince Gortschakoff's circular was a surprise to Bismarck, who is thought to indicate his discontent by the civilities shown to Odo Russell during his journey to and on his arrival at Versailles.

A dispatch from the special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE at Versailles, dated the 21st inst., states that Odo Russell has been received by the Prussian authorities with the greatest cordiality, and will have an opportunity of disclosing the views of England under the most favorable circumstances. Official dispatches received here corroborate the above statement.

A dispatch from the special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE at Vienna says that intelligence has been received in that city that a conciliatory answer had been sent to England by Gortschakoff.

There is a marked change in the tone of the English Foreign Office since last week, when Earl Granville's answer was first published. The fear, then, was lest public opinion should not support a protest against the demands of Russia, which involved a possible recourse to war. The English press, however, was so unanimous in their approval of Earl Granville's note, that it is officially stated to have had an unobscured effect on Prince Gortschakoff.

Now that a peaceful solution is looked for, an apprehension is expressed, officially too, lest the war feeling be roused to such a pitch that it would be difficult to allay it. But it is plain that English opinion has been greatly moderated, being largely influenced by the letters of Mill, Froude, Freeman, and Cairnes.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT IN RUSSIA.

A VOTE OF THANKS TO THE EMPEROR FOR GORTSCHAKOFF'S CIRCULAR.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]
LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1870.
The special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE at St. Petersburg telegraphs this day: "The City Government yesterday unanimously and enthusiastically adopted an address of thanks to the Emperor for Prince Gortschakoff's circular."

"Business men have not shared the general satisfaction at Gortschakoff's note. The Russian Finance Minister was not consulted, but first saw the note published in the official journal. Altogether matters look much better, and the Russian reply is looked for with less anxiety than would have been thought possible last week."

CONFIDENCE RESTORED IN MONEY CIRCLES—BREADSTUFFS DECLINING.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1870.
The feeling to-day in regard to the Eastern question is much more peaceful. Confidence is in good part restored in money circles, and breadstuffs are again declining.

Earl Russell insists that the Ministers should call out and organize the militia, pending the settlement of the Eastern question.

LATEST MILITARY MOVEMENTS.

THE GERMANS CONCENTRATING AROUND PARIS—THE SOUTHERN CAMPAIGN CONTINUED—NO HOPE FOR THE BELEAGUERED CAPITAL.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1870.
The special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE at Berlin telegraphs to-day: "Accounts from Headquarters show that the contemplated movements have been abandoned whereby Prince Frederick Charles was to cross the Loire, march on Bourges, and attack the army of Gen. Aureles de Palladines in the rear. All the forces are now concentrating on Paris, and the investing army is to be covered against all interruption during the active operations now pending."

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE VOSGES.

PARTICULARS OF RICCIOTTI GARIBALDI'S VICTORY AT CHATILLON—THE PRUSSIAN ROUT—RECRUITS THROWING TO GARIBALDI HIS SOLDIERS IMPROVING IN DISCIPLINE.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]
LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1870.
The special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE at Tours telegraphs this day: "A dispatch from the army of the Vosges on Monday says that 400 men from Doubs and other battalions under Ricciotti Garibaldi, attacked Chatillon at 6 a.m., which was occupied by 500 Prussians, who expected a reinforcement the same day of 1,400 men. The enemy was routed, leaving 120 dead, including two Colonels and one Major. They were captured 167 prisoners, including 10 officers. Munition and baggage-wagons were also taken. On the French side, four were killed and 12 wounded."

The special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE at Garibaldi at Autun, writes on the 18th inst.: "The report of a quarrel between Garibaldi and the Franciscans is confounded. Great numbers of them from Marseilles and the Departments of Jura and Saône-et-Loire through his headquarters, asking to be placed under his son's command, and come faster than their equipments can be supplied. The general condition and spirits of the troops are vastly improved."

"Troubles continue with the Autun priests, most of whom are believed to be either Bonapartists or Jesuit spies. But military affairs are daily growing better. The Italian battalions are magnificently organized and disciplined. There is great activity in various directions. French jealousy of Garibaldi is still manifested at Tours and elsewhere, but it no longer paralyzes us."

A SUCCESSFUL SORTIE FROM MONTMÉDY—A HEAVY BOMBARDMENT AT THIONVILLE—SUCCESS OF THE FRENCH TROOPS—ULANS DRIVEN INTO BELGIUM—AFFAIRS IN PARIS.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1870.

The bombardment of Thionville by the Prussians is very active. The shots average about 18 per minute during the day. The cannonade is very distinctly heard in Luxembourg.

The Luxembourg Echo says the Franc-tireurs have been successful in several encounters with the Uhlans lately, near the border. Many of the latter have been killed. More than 1,000 Uhlans have lately been driven into Belgium, where they were at once dispersed.

An encounter occurred yesterday between a French reconnoitering party and 600 Uhlans, at Yvre. No details have been received.

The Prussians have burned several houses at Meslay and Bornevaux, taking some of the citizens prisoners.

A magazine exploded early on Monday morning, near Metz, killing and wounding several soldiers.

News has been received from Paris, by balloon, to midnight of Monday. The city was entirely tranquil. Gustave Flourens, who was arrested for complicity in the late insurrection, was released. The supply of meat had been limited to 50 grammes daily. Horseflesh and vegetables were still abundant. All unmarried men between the ages of 20 and 35 years had been enrolled in the National Guard.

MEXICO.

THE EXTENSION OF THE FREE ZONE—HOSTILITY TOWARD THE UNITED STATES—THE TEHUANTEPEC RAILROAD GRANT.

HAVANA, Nov. 21.—The regular mail steamer from Vera Cruz arrived here yesterday, bringing late news from Mexico. During the discussion of the proposition to extend the free zone, much feeling was manifested against the United States. It was at length decided to extend the free zone. Many members of Congress, when the final vote was taken, announced their reason for voting for the measure, that the United States had demanded the free zone, and they wanted to express their defiance to the Yankee Government. Other members stated that Mexico was in a position to make a great gain by the extension of the free zone, in case of necessity, drive out the people of other countries.

The conditions inserted in the Tehuantepec Railway bill were so tender to the concession nonplussed. President Juarez returned the bill to Congress with certain observations, and it is believed the measure will pass in an acceptable shape at an early day.

A gunsmith at Puebla now manufactures the Remington gun. Seniors will pay $300 in future for every Indian scalp instead of $200.

SPAIN AND THE CUBANS—A CORRECTION.

To the Editor of THE TRIBUNE.

Sir: In an anonymous letter printed in your issue of to-day, it is told, among some other things not referring to me, that, as the agent of the Republic of Cuba, and after consulting with some friends, about certain propositions for peace between Spain and the Cubans, made by Mr. Azaréte, I gave the answer that I had no power or inclination to do so. I regret to say that I have not received the letter, but that if any good guarantee should be offered by Spain, the proposition presented by the Spanish Commissioner, Mr. Azaréte, might be entertained.

This is utterly untrue, and I request you to publish this correction in your paper.

Yours truly, J. M. MESTRE.

GOVERNMENT REPORTS.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF THE PATENT OFFICE—SUCCESS OF THE NEW INDIAN POLICY—THE PACIFIC RAILROADS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The report of the Hon. J. D. Cox, Secretary of the Interior, dated Oct. 31, gives a clear statement of the various classes of Mexican grants now giving the Land Office so much trouble.

The Patent Office is represented to be in an excellent condition. The Secretary says:

"I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the zeal, fidelity, and marked ability with which the Commissioner has discharged his arduous duties. The office is now in excellent working order. The Examining Corps, with very few exceptions, is composed of men whose qualifications have been tested by severe competitive examinations, and who have shown peculiar fitness for the work on which they are engaged. The standard for clerical appointments has been raised, and the efficiency of the service greatly improved. Where vacancies occur among the Examining Clerks, they are filled by the appointment of such applicants as upon thorough examination give evidence of their ability to perform the duties of the office with fidelity and efficiency. This system, inaugurated with my sanction, has had a beneficial influence upon the personnel of the office. A spirit of emulation has been excited, and the occupants of inferior places are encouraged to improve themselves. These special duties will ultimately enable them to fill with credit and efficiency the highest positions. It has also induced a sense of security in the tenure of their appointments, and has created a feeling that ability and faithful service will be promptly recognized and justly rewarded."

On the subject of Indian affairs the Secretary says: "During the past year the Department has habitually pursued that policy which was based upon the wisdom, and shown that even under circumstances of more than usual irritation, peaceful policy will exert a great power over the wildest savages. The labors of the unpaid commission of citizens, who have been enabled to visit the Indian Territory, have been very valuable. They have personally supervised the purchase of Indian goods, a work requiring more than a month of their time in the Territory. They have also been instrumental in the payment of money to the civilized nations in the Indian Territory, and aided in the negotiation which has resulted in the settlement of the claims of the Indians. They have also been instrumental in this city with the Sioux, and have since visited the country, as well as the wild tribes in Wyoming and Montana. They have been extended to Oregon and Washington Territory. They have shown to me self-reliance, courage, and energy in carrying out their duties. The healthful effect of their influence and advice is cheerfully acknowledged by the Department. It is a source of pride and honor to the Department to have been instrumental in the transactions which have been conducted under their supervision. The Secretary of the Interior has been instrumental in the Central superintendents were originally assigned, have most faithfully and industriously continued their beneficent work. They have been instrumental in the settlement of the claims of the Indians, and have been instrumental in the payment of money to the civilized nations in the Indian Territory, and aided in the negotiation which has resulted in the settlement of the claims of the Indians. They have also been instrumental in this city with the Sioux, and have since visited the country, as well as the wild tribes in Wyoming and Montana. They have been extended to Oregon and Washington Territory. They have shown to me self-reliance, courage, and energy in carrying out their duties. The healthful effect of their influence and advice is cheerfully acknowledged by the Department. It is a source of pride and honor to the Department to have been instrumental in the transactions which have been conducted under their supervision.
